this but would you please remain in the chamber and there's a reason for this. Each time we vote on something, it's a little embarrassing for the Chair to have to wait for you to get back into your seats. And not only that but it does waste some time. I don't mind as long as you're in the chamber and I can see who's here and where you're headed. If you leave the place, if you will at least wave your hand, I can keep track then of who has left and who has returned so we'll instruct the clerk to read expeditiously and we'll get through Final Reading here. The Chair would now like to respectfully ask that you take your seats because at least we should start from that point and we'll clear the floor. Final Reading will begin then this morning.

CLERK: Message on the desk, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Read the message on the desk.

CLERK: Message from the executive office. (Clerk read message from the Governor found on page 1238 of Journal).

PRESIDENT: Senator Marvel, did you want to be recognized? Okay. As soon as we clear the floor and get the senators in their seats, we'll be in Final Reading with LB293. Senator Carpenter.

SENATOR CARPENTER: The Chair that due to the length of time required that the senators be confined to the room but not the Chair without the Chair's permission.

PRESIDENT: That's correct, sir. That's fine. Okay, attention please, the Final Reading of LB293.

CLERK: Read LB293.

(Machine turned off).

PRESIDENT: The bill is passed. Attention please, the Final Reading of LB327.

CLERK: Mr. President, a motion on the desk.

PRESIDENT: Read the motion.

CLERK: I move that we bracket LB327. Signed, Senator Waldron.

PRESIDENT: All right, we're ready for your motion to bracket the bill.

SENATOR WALDRON: Discussion but we don't need to pass this today. I would hope we would bracket it for some other time. It'll give us more time today as well as give me another opportunity on LB327.

PRESIDENT: All right. Senator Murphy. Motion is to bracket the bill.

SENATOR MURPHY: Enough is enough. I oppose the motion.

PRESIDENT: Is there any discussion? Do you want to debate the issue any more? Then the question is, shall LB327 be bracketed? All those in favor vote aye. All those opposed vote no. Simple motion to bracket the bill on Final Reading. Thank you. Clerk will record.
